Dageraad Hopped Blonde
British Columbia
Style: Belgian Strong Ale
650 ml

Dageraad means 'daybreak' or 'sunrise' in Flemish. Vancouver has been experiencing an explosion in new beer culture and Dageraad has joined along, with a focus on Belgian inspired beers. This beer is a once-a-year version of one of their classics. Their Blonde is wet-hopped with Centennial hops grown by the Satori family in Chilliwack. The hops add a freshness to a beer loaded with a wonderful mix of spice and creaminess.

Steel & Oak Brewing
British Columbia
Style: Weizenbock
650 ml

The German-style Weizenbock is a wheat version of a German-style bock or a richer and bigger dunkelweizen. Lately, Steel & Oak has been driving forward with their German inspired beers to open the minds of beer drinkers alike. From the beer comes lots of creamy wheat intensity mixed with an array of flavours. Bready malt, plum, raisin and grape burst from the glass matched with banana and clove spice.

Four Winds 'Phaedra' Belgian Rye IPA
British Columbia
Style: India Pale Ale
650 ml

Situated just off the banks of the Fraser River in Delta BC is an extremely small brewery owned and operated by the Mills family. They only just opened their doors in 2013 but are proving to be one of the best. Amongst their incredible lineup of IPA's, Phaedra is no slouch! A Belgian style IPA dosed with rye for an added kick of flavour. As the tropical fruit hop freshness grows so does the rye spice, giving a light sweetness.

Banded Peak Chinook Saison

Alberta

Style: Saison

1000 ml

Alex, Matthew and Colin started homebrewing at their house in Calgary but made a move to open their own brewery just over two years ago. Part of their core range of beers is this Chinook Saison. Historically, saisons or farmhouse ales were brewed at the beginning of winter to quench the thirst of farmhands that worked in the fields the following summer. This beer is certainly crushable with lots of citrus peel, grapefruit and a mild funk.

Brauereu Fahr 'Away'

Alberta

Style: Hefeweizen

500 ml

This is a new Alberta brewery to keep an eye on for sure! Jochen's father grew up around breweries and he has pretty much followed in his footsteps. His goal is to produce traditional German beer right here in Alberta. This beer in particular hits the nail on the head and would easily match up to a list of top German breweries. It's very refreshing, harmonizing spice and sweetness.

Fernie 'Java The Hut'

British Columbia

Style: Coffee Milk Stout

650 ml

The popular Crowsnest Coffee Roasters have collaborated with Fernie Brewing for an incredibly complex stout. These beans are added to the mash with a heavy dose of chocolate, Black Prinz and roasted malts. Add a little lactose powder for added creaminess and boom! It carries creamy milk coffee, mocha, raisin, prune and licorice. Pretty darn good and a wonderful pairing with dessert or try it with your breakfast.
