

May Sampler

Paddy Borthwick

Wairarapa, New Zealand

The Wairarapa wine region lies on the southern tip of the North Island. This Chardonnay offers notes of Asian pear, green apple and a hint of buttered toast.

Pair with Baked Salmon or Carbonara

Artiga Perla del Mar

Campo de Borja, Spain

This Perla del Mar or 'pearls of the sea', is made from 100% Garnacha. It's a bright and fresh rose, showcasing a burst of wild strawberry and cranberry.

Pair with Thai Curry or Shrimp Scampi

Tracy & Cie Pinot Noir

Loire Valley, France

This delightful Pinot Noir certainly shines, with a juicy and supple texture. It offers an elegant mix of dark cherry, blueberry and plum with a hint of jerky.

Pair with Charcuterie or Spicy Chili

Riseis Montepulciano

Abruzzo, Italy

The Abruzzo wine region is located on the east coast of the Adriatic Sea. In terms of red wine production, it's best known for the Montepulciano grape.

Pair with Mushroom Ravioli or Pork Ribs

Fattoria Le Pupille

Tuscany, Italy

Morellino di Scansano is an Italian red wine, made in the hilly area of the village of Scansano. Morellino is the local name for the delectable Sangiovese grape.

Pair with Lasagna or Steak Pizzaiola

Astral De Chateau Puybarbe

Bordeaux, France

Stemming from the infamous region of Bordeaux, is a classic blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc and Merlot. It's silky smooth offering sublime value.

Pair with Lamb Rack or Cheeseburgers

$149 + gst